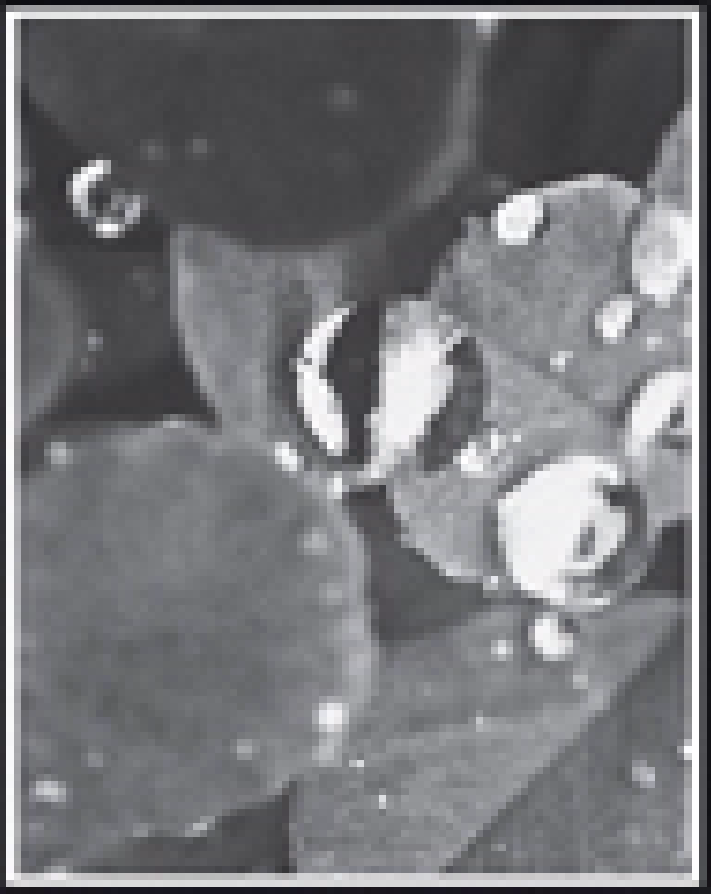
"Dew on the Grass"

The Poetics of Inbetweenness in Chekhov



Radislav Lapushin

Middlebury Studies in Russian Language and Literature

Table of Contents

Acknowledgments xi
Note on Citation, Translation, and Transliteration xiii

PART ONE: The Concept of Inbetweenness and the Poetry of Chekhov's Prose 1

PART TWO: Amidst the Shades of Meaning: The Immediate Textual Context 33

Chapter One. Sentence-Line: The Density of Semantic Exchange 35
Chapter Two. Paragraph-Stanza: A Network of Relationships 59

PART THREE: Amidst the Shades of Meaning: The Context of the Entire Work 87

Chapter One. Image—Motif—World 89
Chapter Two. From Clouds of Dust to Clouds on the Horizon: "The Beauties" 125

PART FOUR: Between the "Ocean" and the "Sky":
Chekhov's Spatial Rhymes 149

AFTERWORD. Inbetweenness: The Poetics of Life 185

Bibliography 191
Index 205