Faith and Politics in America

From Jamestown to the Civil War

EDITED BY

JOSEPH PRUD'HOMME

MAJOR CONCEPTS IN POLITICS AND POLITICAL THEORY 29

PETER LANG PUBLISHING

Table of Contents

INTRODUCTION 1
Joseph Prud'homme
CHAPTER ONE: Colonial Religion and the True Revolution in Virginia 3
John Turner
CHAPTER TWO: Rev. Thomas Bray, Colonial Maryland, and the Role of Religion in Public Life 15
Joseph Prud'homme
CHAPTER THREE: Jefferson's Opposition to the Judeo-Christian Tradition 59
Stephen Strehle
CHAPTER FOUR: Religion in the Thought of James Madison 91
Garrett Sheldon
CHAPTER FIVE: John Quincy Adams and a Republic of Virtue 115
Gary Smith
CHAPTER SIX: Slavery in America: An Institution Defined by Faith 181
Dawn Hutchinson
CHAPTER SEVEN: Evangelical Ministers in the Antebellum South and Guilt over Slavery: The Incoherence of Evangelical Pro-Slavery Thought 205
Joseph Prud'homme

LIST OF CONTRIBUTORS 259

BIBLIOGRAPHY 261

INDEX 273