

Contents

List of Figures	ix
Acknowledgements	xi
About this Book	xiii

ALEXANDRA KOLB

1 Cross-Currents of Dance and Politics: An Introduction	I
---	---

PART I Choreographing the Revolution	37
--------------------------------------	----

ROGER COPELAND

2 The Death of the Choreographer	39
----------------------------------	----

JOHANN KRESNIK

3 'Theatre has to become political again...' Interview by Alexandra Kolb	67
---	----

ALEXANDRA KOLB

4 Terror without End? Choreographing the Red Army Faction and Weather Underground	89
--	----

PART II Dance of Enemies	117
--------------------------	-----

MARION KANT

5 Death and the Maiden: Mary Wigman in the Weimar Republic	119
--	-----

GUNHILD OBERZAUCHER-SCHÜLLER

- 6 Dramaturgy and Form of the 'German Ballet':
Examination of a National Socialist Genre 145

STACEY PRICKETT

- 7 Dancing the American Dream during World War II 167

PART III Dancers, Rights and Wrongs 193

NAOMI M. JACKSON

- 8 Dance and Human Rights 195

VICTORIA MARKS

- 9 About Not About Iraq 223

SUZANNE LITTLE

- 10 Re-Presenting the Traumatic Real:
Douglas Wright's Black Milk 233

PART IV Dancing to Market Forces 255

RAMSAY BURT

- 11 Performative Intervention and Political Affect:
de Keersmaecker and Sehgal 257

SOO HEE LEE & TATJANA E. BYRNE

- 12 Politicizing Dance: Cultural Policy Discourses
in the UK and Germany 281

LUKE PURSHOUSE

13 Class and Thatcherism in Billy Elliot 305

Notes on Contributors 331

Index 335