

Dominic Busch / Claude-Hélène Mayer / Christian Martin Boness
(eds.)

INTERNATIONAL AND REGIONAL PERSPECTIVES ON CROSS-CULTURAL MEDIATION

STUDIEN ZUR INTERKULTURELLEN MEDIATION

5

PETER LANG
Internationaler Verlag der Wissenschaften

Contents

Preface
Dominic Busch	7
Introduction: International and Regional Perspectives on Cross-Cultural Mediation
Dominic Busch, Claude-Hélène Mayer and Christian Martin Boness	9
How Does Culture Affect Conflict Mediation? Disentangling Concepts from Theory and Practice
Dominic Busch	15
Usuluhishi. Terms and Concepts of Intercultural Mediation and Conflict Management from Tanzanian Perspectives
Claude-Hélène Mayer, Christian Martin Boness, Samuel Togolai Kussaga	51
Intercultural Mediation: Asian and Western Conflict Lens
Stella Ting-Toomey	79
Is Cross-Cultural Mediation a Technique? Theoretical/Methodological Frameworks and Empirical Evidence from Interaction
Claudio Baraldi	99
Human Social Behavior, Cultural Perspectives, and Conflict Mediation: A Multi-Variate Analysis of Gambian Dispute Processing
Mark Davidheiser	127
Exporting Mediation Through Role Plays: Intercultural Considerations in Knowledge Transfer
Michelle LeBaron and Nadja Alexander	151
Cross-Cultural Business Mediation. The Model of Identity-based Managerial Mediation in International Management
Claude-Hélène Mayer	169
Mediated Doctor-Patient Interaction. An Italian Case Study
Federico Farini and Viola Barbieri	195

National Unity and Cultural Diversity in Conflict Resolution: Capacity Building for Sustainable Peace and Reconciliation in Namibia
Angela Mickley	215
About the Contributors	227
About the Editors	229