

Burkhard Lemper / Manfred Zachcial (eds.)

■ Trends in Container Shipping

Proceedings of the
ISL Maritime Conference 2008

9th and 10th of December, World Trade Center Bremen

1

Maritime Logistics
Maritime Logistics
Maritime Logistics

PETER LANG

Contents

1	Preface (Prof. Dr. Manfred Zachcial)	7
2	Salutation – Perspectives of Ports in Germany (Detthold Aden)	9
3	Session I – World Economy, Trade and Shipping
3.1	Globalisation and Container Shipping Demand (Prof. Dr. Burkhard Lemper)	13
3.2	Baltic Sea Feeder Market (Prof. Dr. Karl-Heinz Breitzmann)	25
3.3	Finland as a Transit Gateway for Containers to Russia (Prof. Dr. Juhani Vainio)	37
3.4	Challenges for the German and European Shipping Industry (Dr. Hans-Heinrich Nöll)	45
4	Session II – Vessel Size Development and its Implications
4.1	Assessment of Optimum Vessel Sizes by Trade (Steve Wray)	49
4.2	Current Large Designs and Limiting Factors (Prof. Dr. Volker Bertram, Jan-Olaf Probst)	65
4.3	Impact on Feeder Demand and Liner Strategies (Dirk Visser)	73
4.4	Evaluation of Port Call Strategies for Ocean Carriers (Prof. Dr. Carsten Boll, Michael Tasto)	93
5	Session III – Implications of Market Growth on Ports and Hinterland
5.1	Port Congestion and Infrastructure Needs (Diego Teurelinx)	103
5.2	Superstructure and Simulation (Dr.-Ing. Holger Schütt)	107
5.3	Implications on Empty Container Logistics (Prof. Dr. Heiner Hautau, Barbara Hüttmann)	119
6	Session IV – Financing and Taxation Aspects
6.1	Re-Financing Aspects in Global Shipping (Dr. Hans-Joachim Weinberger)	131
6.2	Freight and Charter Markets (Prof. Dr. Manfred Zachcial)	139
6.3	Finance Behaviour of Banks Concerning Ship Financing (Prof. Dr. André Küster Simic, Volker Endert)	146