

Sport and Identity in France

Practices, Locations, Representations

Philip Dine

CULTURAL IDENTITY STUDIES

14

PETER LANG

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
Introduction: Exploring French sporting identities	i
 PART 1 Practices	 ii
CHAPTER 1
From Gladiateur to Ourasi : France's equine sporting champions	13
CHAPTER 2
The Olympic Games: The French invention – and manipulation – of an international sporting showcase	45
CHAPTER 3
From the Great Loop to the Hell of the North: Cycle road racing, work and suffering	81
 PART 2 Locations	 ii5
CHAPTER 4
Tennis from le jeu de paume to Roland(-)Garros	ii7
CHAPTER 5
Marianne rules the waves: Ocean racing from Alain Gerbault to Florence Arthaud	149

CHAPTER 6

Looking for liberty – and finding France – in the desert, the mountains and the city	177
---	-----

PART 3 Representations	215
------------------------	-----

CHAPTER 7

Combat sports: Masculinity, ethnicity and memory	217
--	-----

CHAPTER 8

French rugby: From provincial nostalgia to pragmatic cosmopolitanism	253
---	-----

CHAPTER 9

Competing identities in French football: Locality, ethnicity, fidelity	287
---	-----

Conclusion: Baron Pierre de Coubertin's contested legacy	327
--	-----

Bibliography	333
--------------	-----

Index	367
-------	-----