

Claudia Richter

The Calvinesque

An Aesthetics of Violence in English
Literature after the Reformation

PETER LANG EDITION

Table of Contents

Introduction	9
Delineation of Definitions and Categories	11
‘The Calvin-esque’: An Aesthetics of Violence	11
Religion, Protestantism, Violence	16
1. The Reformation of the Image	25
1.1 Iconophobia	25
An Almshouse for a Palace?	25
Prophets and Word-painting	32
2. Anti-Theatricality and the Imagination of Violence	39
2.1 Calvin’s Early Christian Sources: Tertullian, De Spectaculis	41
2.2 Augustine, Ad Simplicianum	44
2.3 Crime and Punishment: Thomas Beard, The Theatre of God’s Judgements	47
2.4 Representations of Violence: Martyrdom	54
Medieval Martyrdom and Violent Imagery	56
John Foxe	60
The Death of John Hooper	62
3. The ‘Calvin-esque’: Literary and Dramatic Language	67
3.1 Psalm Translations after the Reformation	67
3.1.1 The Maledictory Psalm 137	69
3.1.2 Psalm 137 and Milton’s Sonnet 18	78
3.2 Calvinism, Elizabethan and Jacobean Drama	84
3.2.1 The Rhetoric of Prophecy: Marlowe, Tamburlaine and Dr Faustus	87
Protestantism and Rhetoric	87
Hyperbole, Rhetoric and the Bible	91
Future Tense and Hyperbole in The Passionate Shepherd , Dr Faustus and Tamburlaine	95
Revelation: Calvin and Tamburlaine	105
3.2.2 Tamburlaine the Great and Foxe’s Acts and Monuments	110

3.2.3	The Iconography of God's Punishment: Braining	115
	The case of Dr Faustus : The German Faustbuch
	to Marlowe's Dr Faustus	116
	Endings	118
	Back to Braining	125
3.2.4	The Dramatic and Literary 'Calvinesque': Summary	131
4.	Calvinism and Histories of Violence in Europe	133
4.1	The "Pornography of Pain"	134
4.2	Disciplinary Society	137
	Philip Gorski and Charles Taylor	138
	Michel Foucault	141
	Norbert Elias	145
	Epilogue	149
	Bibliography	151
1.	Editions	151
	A. Theological	151
	B. Literary	152
	C. Works cited	153
	Miscellaneous	166
	Deutsche Zusammenfassung	167
	Kapitelüberblick	170