

Frank Trentmann, Anna Barbara Sum, Manuel Rivera (Eds.)

Work in Progress

Economy and Environment in the Hands of Experts

ISBN 978-3-96238-010-6

336 Seiten, 14,8 x 21cm, 30,- Euro

oekom verlag, München 2018

©oekom verlag 2018

www.oekom.de

List of Contents

Introduction

Frank Trentmann, Anna Barbara Sum and Manuel Rivera	7
--	---

Learning to Scale: The Case of Victorian Britain

Fredrik Albritton Jonsson	35
-------------------------------------	----

The Social Life of Energy Futures: Experts, Consumers and Demand in the Golden Age of Modernisation, c. 1900–73

Rebecca Wright and Frank Trentmann	47
--	----

From American South to Global South: The TVA's Experts and Expertise, 1933–98

Vincent Legendijk	79
-----------------------------	----

What Makes an Expert?

The View from UNRRA, 1943–47

Jessica Reinisch	103
----------------------------	-----

Contesting the Official Concept of Progress

John Toye	131
---------------------	-----

The Strategy of Expertise: Albert O. Hirschman, Economics and 'Development' in the 1950s

Anna Barbara Sum	155
----------------------------	-----

From the Environment to the Anthropocene: A History of Changing Expertise 1948–2018

Libby Robin	183
-----------------------	-----

The Future and the Environment:

A History of Shared Expertise

Deborah Poskanzer	205
-----------------------------	-----

Towards the German ‘Energiewende’: Ecological Problems and Scientific Expertise in West German Energy Policies during the 1970s and 1980s
Eva Oberloskamp	233
Masters of Uncertainty: Expectations and Expertise in International Finance Organisations after 1945
Laura Rischbieter	263
The Discursive Politics of Expertise: What Matters for Geoengineering Research and Governance?
Stefan Schäfer and Sean Low	291
—————
Acknowledgements	313
List of Contributors	314
Index	318