

Contents

|                                                                                                                      |        |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------|
| Acknowledgements.....                                                                                                | 11     |
| List of Tables .....                                                                                                 | 12     |
| Annexes.....                                                                                                         | 14     |
| Abbreviations .....                                                                                                  | 15     |
| Introduction.....                                                                                                | 17 |
| I. Theoretical Part .....                                                                                            | 27     |
| 1. Literature Review .....                                                                                           | 27     |
| 1.1 Overview of Research on Integration in thePost-Soviet Region.....                                            | 27     |
| 1.2 Literature on Authoritarian Regimes.....                                                                         | 36     |
| 2. In Search of a Theoretical Framework of Analysis: RobertPutnam's Two-Level Game Approach.....                 | 40     |
| 2.1 Conventional Theoretical Approaches .....                                                                        | 40     |
| 2.2. Nexus of Internal-External Determinants inForeign Policy Analysis .....                                     | 43     |
| 2.3. Putnam's Two-Level Game Approach.....                                                                           | 45     |
| 2.3.1 Main Assumptions of Putnam's Approach.....                                                                     | 45     |
| 2.3.2 Application of the Two-Level Game Approach inAcademic Literature .....                                     | 46     |
| 2.3.3 A Critique of Putnam's Approach.....                                                                           | 48     |
| 2.4. Application of Putnam's Approach to IntegrationGames in the Eastern Neighbourhood .....                     | 50     |
| II. Research Design .....                                                                                            | 63     |
| 3. Case Study Methodology and Case Selection .....                                                                   | 63     |
| 4. Towards a Clearer Conceptualisation andOperationalisation of the Independent and DependentVariables ..... | 65     |

|                                                                                                                  |     |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 4.1 Defining and Operationalising the Explanandum of Research.....                                               | 65  |
| 4.2 Integration Offer.....                                                                                       | 67  |
| 4.3 Independent Variables (Explanans).....                                                                       | 70  |
| III. Empirical Part.....                                                                                         | 73  |
| 5. Belarusian Integration Policy: Caught Between Domestic Interests, Russia and the EU .....                     | 73  |
| 5.1 International Factors Influencing Belarus' Integration Stance.....                                           | 73  |
| 5.1.1 Attractiveness of Integration Offers for Belarus (Costs and Benefits).....                                 | 73  |
| a. Attractiveness of Russia's Integration Offer for Belarus (Costs and Benefits).....                            | 77  |
| b. Attractiveness of the EU's Integration Offer for Belarus (Costs and Benefits).....                            | 88  |
| 5.1.2 Economic Linkages Between Belarus and External Actors.....                                                 | 92  |
| a. Belarus-Russia Economic Linkages.....                                                                         | 92  |
| b. Belarus-EU Economic Linkages .....                                                                            | 101 |
| 5.2 Domestic Factors Influencing Belarus' Integration Stance .....                                               | 106 |
| 5.2.1 Size of the Win-Set: Level-II Political Institutions and Ratification Procedures in the Parliament.....    | 107 |
| 5.2.2 Size of the Win-Set: Level-II Political Preferences and Coalitions .....                                   | 109 |
| 1) Formation and Development of the Belarusian Nomenklatura .....                                                | 109 |
| 2) Geopolitical Preferences of Deputies in the Belarusian Parliament .....                                       | 112 |
| 3) Political Opposition in Belarus .....                                                                         | 117 |
| 4) Regime-Linked Business Elites and Their Influence on Politics in Belarus.....                                 | 121 |
| 5) Geopolitical Preferences of Belarusians.....                                                                  | 128 |
| 5.2.3 Size of Win-set: Strategies of the Level-I Negotiator (Mechanisms of Elite Co-Optation and Control). ..... | 131 |
| 5.3 Analysis of the Integration Game in Belarus Vis-à-Vis the EU and Russia in 1994–2020 .....                   | 138 |

|       |                                                                                                                                                           |     |
|-------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 5.3.1 | First Presidency of Lukashenka (1994–2001): Russian Integration Euphoria and the Freezing of Relations with the EU .....                                  | 138 |
| a.    | Formation and Development of Belarus' Win-Set.....                                                                                                        | 138 |
| b.    | Belarus-Russia Integration Game: Quick Start – Mixed Results.....                                                                                         | 140 |
| c.    | Belarus-EU Integration (No) Game .....                                                                                                                    | 147 |
| 5.3.2 | Second Presidency of Lukashenka (2001–2006): Dismantling the Integration Myth and Switching to Economic Pragmatism.....                                   | 149 |
| a.    | Further Consolidation of a Homogeneous Win-Set.....                                                                                                       | 149 |
| b.    | Belarus-Russia Altered Integration Game: A Pragmatic Twist .....                                                                                          | 152 |
| c.    | Belarus-EU Integration Game: Who Against Whom? .....                                                                                                      | 157 |
| 5.3.3 | Third Presidency of Lukashenka (2006–2010): Further Marketisation of Relations and Integration in the Framework of Economic Pragmatism .....              | 160 |
| a.    | Complete “Subordination” of Belarus' Win-Set to the President's Acceptability Set .....                                                                   | 160 |
| b.    | Belarus-Russia Integration Game as “Sovereignty Entrepreneurship” .....                                                                                   | 163 |
| c.    | Belarus-EU Virtual Integration Game.....                                                                                                                  | 167 |
| 5.3.4 | Fourth Presidency of Lukashenka (2010–2015): First Signs of Democratisation and Effect of the Ukraine's Crisis on Belarusian Integration Policy .....     | 171 |
| a.    | Real or Cosmetic Changes in Belarus' Win-Set?..                                                                                                           | 171 |
| b.    | Belarus-Russia Integration Game: Business as Usual .....                                                                                                  | 175 |
| c.    | Belarus-EU Integration Game: Old Wine in New Bottles?.....                                                                                                | 179 |
| 5.3.5 | Fifth Presidency of Lukashenka (2015–2020): The 2020 Presidential Elections as a New Critical Juncture in Belarus' Relations with Russia and the EU ..... | 185 |
| a.    | Domestic Developments in Belarus .....                                                                                                                    | 186 |
| b.    | Belarus-Russia Integration Game: Fighting Off Pressure from Russia.....                                                                                   | 189 |
| c.    | Belarus-EU Integration Game: An Attempt at Subtle Democratisation? .....                                                                                  | 194 |

|                                                                                                                                |     |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 5.4 Conclusion.....                                                                                                            | 197 |
| 6. Ukraine's Balancing Act Vis-à-Vis the EU and Russia:Integration Policy Dimension.....                                   | 200 |
| 6.1 International Factors Influencing Ukraine'sIntegration Stance.....                                                     | 200 |
| 6.1.1 Attractiveness of Integration Offers for Ukraine(Costs and Benefits).....                                            | 200 |
| a. Attractiveness of Russia's Integration Offerfor Ukraine.....                                                            | 204 |
| b. Attractiveness of the EU's Integration Offerfor Ukraine.....                                                            | 210 |
| 6.1.2 Economic Linkages Between Ukraine and ExternalActors.....                                                            | 219 |
| a. Ukraine – Russia Economic Linkages .....                                                                                    | 219 |
| b. Ukraine-EU Economic Linkages .....                                                                                          | 227 |
| 6.2 Domestic Factors Influencing Integration Stance ....                                                                       | 233 |
| 6.2.1 Size of the Win-set: Level-II Political Institutionsand Ratification Procedures in the Parliament .....              | 234 |
| 6.2.2 Level-II Political Preferences and Coalitions .....                                                                      | 237 |
| 1) Political Parties in Ukraine and Their Foreign        Policy Orientation .....                                  | 237 |
| 2) The Role of Oligarchs in Affecting Ukraine's        Win-Set .....                                               | 245 |
| 3) Geopolitical Preferences of Ukrainians Towards        Integration .....                                         | 254 |
| 6.2.3. Strategies of the Level-1 Negotiator.....                                                                               | 258 |
| 6.2.4. Acceptability Set of the President and ItsCorrelation with the Win-Set. ....                                        | 262 |
| 6.3 Analysis of the Integration Game in Ukraine Vis-à-Vis Russia and the EU in 1994–2020 .....                             | 266 |
| 6.3.1 Kuchma's Presidency (1994-2004): Returning toEurope With(Out) Russia? .....                                          | 266 |
| 6.3.1.1 From Kravchuk's to Kuchma's FirstPresidency (1994-1999): First Attempt atMulti-vector Integration Stance ..... | 266 |
| a. Formation and Development ofUkraine's Win-Set .....                                                                     | 266 |

|         |                                                                                                                 |     |
|---------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| b.      | A “Pick and Choose” Approach in Ukraine’s Integration Game with Russia.....                                     | 269 |
| c.      | Ukraine-EU Integration Game: Institutional Confusion and European Illusion.....                                 | 272 |
| 6.3.1.2 | Kuchma’s Second Presidency (1999–2004): A Rise of Pragmatic Nationalism .....                                   | 273 |
| a.      | Further Consolidation of the Pragmatic Eurasianists and Westernizers Shaping Ukraine’s Win-Set .....            | 274 |
| b.      | Ukraine-Russia Integration Game: A “Battle” of Kuchma’s Acceptability Set and Ukraine’s Win-Set.....            | 277 |
| c.      | A Mix of Sticks and Carrots in the Ukraine-EU Integration Game.....                                             | 279 |
| 6.3.2   | Yushchenko’s Presidency (2005–2010): Ukraine’s Brief Hope of EU Integration .....                               | 282 |
| a.      | A Transformation of Ukraine’s Win-Set After the Orange Revolution .....                                         | 282 |
| b.      | Ukraine-Russia Zero-Sum Integration Game.....                                                                   | 285 |
| c.      | Ukraine-EU Integration Game: The Door Is Neither Open, Nor Closed .....                                         | 286 |
| 6.3.3   | Yanukovych’s Presidency (2010–2014): New Game with Old Rules? .....                                             | 289 |
| a.      | Ukraine’s Win-Set: “Everything New Is Actually Well-Forgotten Old” .....                                        | 289 |
| b.      | Ukraine – Russia Integration Game: Back to Old Rules .....                                                      | 292 |
| c.      | The EU-Ukraine Integration Game: Back to a Multi-Vector Integration Stance .....                                | 296 |
| 6.3.4   | Poroshenko’s Presidency (2014–2019): Ukraine’s U-Turn and the Change of Integration Stance to Pro-European..... | 299 |
| a.      | Transformation of Ukraine’s Win-Set: Domination of Westernizers? .....                                          | 300 |
| b.      | Ukraine-Russia Integration: Game Over .....                                                                     | 303 |

|                                                                                   |     |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| c. Ukraine-EU Integration Game: RealThis Time? .....                          | 305 |
| 6.4 Conclusion.....                                                               | 307 |
| IV. Conclusions.....                                                              | 311 |
| 7. Contributions to Broader Academic Debates andFurther Research Agenda ..... | 333 |
| Bibliography .....                                                                | 337 |
| Annexes.....                                                                      | 397 |
| Index.....                                                                        | 411 |