

Contents

ABREVIATIONS	xv
Introduction	1
Chapter 1: Insecure Identities and the Nationalist Revival	5
1.1. Nationalism: Why is There not “a” Theory of Nationalism?.....	7
1.2. Nationalist Revival, National Identity and Security.....	21
1.3. Plan of the Study.....	27
Chapter 2: Theories of Nation and National Identity: Comparing Soviet (Russian, Ukrainian) and Western Perspectives.....	37
2.1. Major Elements Within the Genesis of Nation, Ethnie, National and Ethnic Consciousness.	37
2.1.1 “Nation”: Modernist vs. Primordialist Perspectives	38
2.1.2 Ethnic Community, Ethnie, Ethnos	42
2.1.3 National Consciousness as a Complex System of Beliefs.....	49
2.1.4 Ethnic Consciousness – Optional or Crucial?	55
2.2. Ethnicity and Its Place Within National Consciousness.	60
2.2.1 Myths of National Consciousness or National Consciousness as a Myth?.....	61
2.2.2 Stereotypes and National Consciousness	71
Conclusions to Chapter 2.....	76
Chapter 3: Nationalism and Societal Security.....	79
3.1. Nationalism, War, and Security.....	79
3.2. Security Communities and Societal Security.....	92

3.3. The Security Community of EU-NATO and the Societal Security of Ukraine	99
3.1.1 Presidential Election Campaigns in Ukraine (1999-2019) as Reflection of Societal Security Concerns.....	105
3.1.2 Influence of the EU-NATO Security Community Expansion on Russian-Ukrainian Relations	108
Conclusions to Chapter 3.....	121

Chapter 4: From Soviet Ethno-Political Engineering to Ethno-Geopolitics: The Construction of a “Cossack” Nation in Ukraine and “Russian Civilization” 125

4.1. The Heritage of Soviet Ethnography and the Revival of Ethno-Geopolitics in Russia	126
4.2. Ethno-Geopolitics of Putin’s Eurasianism.....	136
4.2.1 What is Putin’s Eurasianism?.....	137
4.2.2 Putin’s Nationalism: Known Knowns	139
4.2.3 Putin’s Nationalism: Known Unknowns.....	140
4.2.4 Revival of Political Eurasianism Ideology in Russia.....	141
4.2.5 New Eurasianism: Implications and Contradictions	144
4.2.6 Unknown Unknowns of Putin’s Eurasianism	146
4.3. The Cossack Revival in Russia.....	148
4.4. The Heritage of Soviet Ethnography and Ethno-Political Discourse in Ukraine	179
4.5. The Cossack Revival in Ukraine	183
Conclusions to Chapter 4.....	200

Chapter 5: Insecurity of Nationalism in Ukraine and Russia: A Case Toward a Normative Theory of Nationalism 209

5.1. Nationalism as a Modern Belief System.....	209
5.2. Nationalism, Federalism and Civil Society.....	215

5.3. Summary	224
BIBLIOGRAPHY	233
Appendix 1: The Case Study of the Black Sea Cossack Revival	253
1.1. Fieldwork Methods.	253
1.2. Phases of Fieldwork and of Fieldwork Methods Application.	256
1.3. Evolution of Personal Identities—Shift Towards Cossack Identification.	263
1.4. Black Sea Cossacks—Self-Image and Perception of Others	273
Summary	281
2. Reflections of the Societal Security Concerns in the Conflict Situation Between the Two Cossack Organizations in the Black Sea Region.....	287
2.1. Description of the Two Cossack Movements.....	287
2.2. The Origin of Conflicting Interests.....	293
2.3. Self-Perception of Parties.....	294
2.4. An Attempt to Solve the Problem.....	295
2.5. The Social Context	296
Summary	297
Appendix 2. Photo-Pictures	301
ENDNOTES.....	305