

Contents

| | |
|---|-----|
| List of Figures and Tables..... | 7 |
| List of Abbreviations..... | 9 |
| Foreword by Yaroslav Hrytsak | 11 |
| Authors' Preface..... | 15 |
| Introduction..... | 19 |
| 1. Historical inference: Ukraine's transition from the LAO vs OAO perspective | 43 |
| 2. Rule-of-law vs discretionary justice | 67 |
| Partial reforms..... | 69 |
| Anti-corruption institutions | 73 |
| Judiciary: interface with public vs prosecutor | 77 |
| Constitutional crisis and reform of the Constitutional Court | 87 |
| Prosecution – a core institutional battlefield between the existing patrimonial system and fundamental systemic reform..... | 90 |
| State Bureau of Investigations | 96 |
| Economic Security Bureau of Ukraine (ESBU) | 98 |
| Security Service of Ukraine (SBU) | 99 |
| Police | 101 |
| Anti-oligarch legislation | 102 |
| 3. The Economy: Rent seeking versus profit seeking; Eurasia versus Europe; post-industrial versus industrial | 107 |
| Rent seeking versus profit seeking..... | 107 |
| Socioeconomic shifts | 113 |

| | | |
|----|--|-----|
| 4. | Political institutions: Vertical of power vs. checks and balances | 121 |
| | Brief timeline of events | 121 |
| | Is a new sustainable "single pyramid" possible? | 132 |
| | The change of the elite | 145 |
| 5. | Sociological perspective: New cleavages, identity shifts, and the rise of the "creative class" | 151 |
| | Where does Ukraine stand in the transition from LAO to OAO? | 156 |
| | Ukraine's identity shifts: changes in geo-political attitudes and hierarchy of self-identifications..... | 160 |
| | The changes in social stratification and main cleavages on the way to an OAO: the emergence of the urban creative class..... | 166 |
| | Proactive democrats: who are they? | 173 |
| | Post-revolutionary cleavages in attitudes: is Ukrainian society increasingly polarized, and is that a risk for OAO?. 177 | |
| | Potential for evolutionary development | 180 |
| | Conclusions and discussions | 187 |
| | Recommendations | 201 |
| | Bibliography | 209 |