

Wolf Michael Kühne

Milan – the Secrets of the City

discovered through the eyes of an adopted Milanese

Photography by Myriam Kühne-Rauner

Translated by Leanne Cvetan Lockwood

Nünnerich-Asmus
Verlag & Media

Publishing Information

232 pages with 85 illustrations

Cover illustration: Fountain Stazione Centrale

Bibliographical information of the German National Library

The German National Library has registered this publication in the German National Bibliography; detailed bibliographical data are available online at <http://dnb.dnb.de>.

Originally published as MAILAND – Die Verborgene

Gesehen mit den Augen eines Wahlmailänders by Wolf Michael Kühne

Copyright © 2025 by Nünnerich-Asmus Verlag & Media GmbH

English translation copyright © 2025 by Leanne Cvetan Lockwood

Photography © 2025 by Myriam Kühne-Rauner

© 2025 by Nünnerich-Asmus Verlag & Media GmbH, Oppenheim am Rhein

ISBN 978-3-96176-303-0

Copy-editing: Tina Sieber, Franziska Grau

Cover design: Myriam Kühne-Rauner, hjwiehr, Oppenheim

Graphic design and type setting: alles mit Medien, Sprendlingen; Myriam Kühne-Rauner

Photography and Art Direction: Myriam Kühne-Rauner

If the publication contains links to third-party websites, we accept no liability for their content, as we do not adopt them as our own, but merely refer to their status at the time of initial publication.

All rights reserved, especially the right of translation into other languages.

This book is copyright. Without express prior consent of the publisher, no part may be reproduced by photomechanical means (photocopy, microcopy), or processed and transmitted by means of electronic systems.

Both the original German text and the English translation published by Nünnerich-Asmus Verlag & Media GmbH, Oppenheim am Rhein, Germany

Further titles of our program under: www.na-verlag.de

Nünnerich-Asmus Verlag & Media GmbH,
Krämerstraße 25, 55276 Oppenheim am Rhein
E-Mail: verlag@na-verlag.de

Printed in Europe

TABLE OF CONTENTS

FOREWORD	7
MILAN'S HEART AND SOUL	9
Work, elegance and constant change	11
MILAN AND UNPOPULAR ROME	17
Was Milan once Roman?	19
At the beginning was the center – Roman Domination	21
Milan as the capital of the Western Roman Empire	23
Constantine the Great – The collapse of the tetrarchy and the Edict of Milan	25
The end of the Western Empire	27
Ancient Milan	28
In search of Roman traces in Milan	29
LATE ANTIQUITY AND EARLY CHRISTIANITY	35
Saint Ambrose	37
A natural-born trailblazer becomes the bishop of Milan	37
Ambrose's "calling" and the conflict with Arianism	41
The man of action in office	43
The Romanesque period and Ambrose's building program	47
Vivid mosaics – The Basilica of San Lorenzo Maggiore	48
The ancient heart of the city – St. Tecla / Cathedral district	53
The Basilica	54
Construction of St. Dionysius, St. Simpliciano, St. Nazaro, and St. Ambrose	55
The Basilica of the Virgins – San Simpliciano	57
San Nazaro	57
A brick marvel – Sant'Ambrogio	58
THE MIDDLE AGES	65
A religious era	67
The Barbarian invasion of Milan	68
Cologne and the relics of the Magi – The Basilica of Sant'Eustorgio	70

The age of the free city of Milan	74
The Palazzo della Ragione and Piazza Mercanti	74
The bite of the Visconti Viper	76
A marble wonder – The Duomo cathedral	80
THE BEGINNING OF THE RENAISSANCE	91
Nomen est omen: The name Sforza means power	93
Francesco Sforza – The condottiere	93
Every city has its fortress – Castello Sforzesco	94
Innovations in Healthcare – Ospedale Maggiore Hospital	97
The unique twin churches of the Sforza Couple – Santa Maria Inconronata	99
The cruel lord – Galeazzo Maria Sforza	100
The tyrannical uncle – Gian Galeazzo Sforza and the ascent of Ludovico il Moro	101
HIGH RENAISSANCE AND THE END OF THE SFORZAS	105
Noteworthy Renaissance structures	108
A banker and his mausoleum – The Portinari Chapel in Sant'Eustorgio	109
The genius – Bramante and the dynastic burial ground	112
An optical illusion – S. Satrio	114
Milan's "Sistine Chapel" – San Maurizio al Monastero Maggiore	114
The adopted home of a universal genius – Leonardo da Vince and Milan ..	118
The crowning glory of all paintings – Leonardo da Vinci's The Last Supper	119
An equestrian statue for Francesco Sforza	121
The ingenious inventor Leonardo da Vinci – The National Museum of Science and Technology	122
UNDER FOREIGN DOMINANCE	125
The French and their general – Gian Giacomo Trivulzio	127
The General's mausoleum – The mortuary chapel of Trivulzio Mausoleum in San Nazaro	129
Milan and Madrid (1535–1700)	130
The Big Men – Leone Leoni's Casa degli Omenoni	132
The Counter-Reformation – Carlo and Federico Borromeo	132
A library for perpetuity – The Ambrosiana	134

The Habsburgs and Austrian reforms	134
Austrian influence in the city – Piazza Cordusio and Via Dante	137
The last of the Great Venetians – Tiepolo in Milan	137
A “Temple of the Muses” to the musical world – Milan’s La Scala	139
Masterpieces beyond compare – The Brera Gallery	142
The rise of the Corsican – Napoleon in Milan	146
Parisian influence on city planning – Foro Bonaparte, Arco della Pace, Arena, and Torre Branca	147
And again, Austria – From the Congress of Vienna to Italian independence	148
MILAN AS PART OF THE ITALIAN NATIONAL STATE	151
The father of the modern Italian language – Alessandro Manzoni and the museum dedicated to him	154
Milan’s drawing room – The Galleria Vittorio Emanuele	156
The historic residence of an aristocrat – The Poldi Pezzoli Museum	159
Living like Renaissance princes – The Bagatti Valsecchi Museum	160
In death we are not all the same – The Monumental Cemetery	161
Milan’s economic presence	166
THE 20TH CENTURY – THE MODERN AGE	169
Cheerfulness – Milan’s art nouveau	171
Art Deco in Milan – Milano Centrale train station	172
A different type of remembrance culture – Milan’s Memorial to the fallen	177
Fascist architecture – the new stock exchange on Piazza Affari	178
More than just nostalgia – Milan’s tram system	179
An iconic industrial villa in the middle of the city – Villa Necchi-Campiglio	180
The beginning of design in the icon of the 1930s – The Triennale	184
San Siro and Italy’s soccer craze	185
Pirellone and Torre Velasca – Symbols of early modernism	187
A kaleidoscope of the 20th century – Il Museo Novecento	188
The historic house museum – Casa Museo Boschi di Stefano	190

THE 21ST CENTURY – TEMPLES OF MODERN ART AND DESIGN	193
A converted distillery and the Koolhaas Tower – The Fondazione Prada	195
From tires to modern art – The Pirelli HangarBicocca	196
The capital city of design – The ADI Design Museum Compasso d'Oro	198
A sculpture of Milan's symbolic character – Needle by Claes Oldenburg on Piazza Cadorna	200
Photo hotspot – The Middle Finger by Maurizio Cattelan	201
Open air museum of the future – CityLife and Porta Nuova	202
From exhibition center to the three towers – CityLife	205
A TOUR OF DISCOVERY: MILANESE WAY OF LIFE	207
A day in the life of a Milanese – Porta Nuova and its surroundings	209
The Vertical Forest – The world's greenest skyscrapers	223
Isola – Milan's hippest district	223
Picture credits	232