

Table of Contents

1	Introduction	7
	Christian Hild, Marius de Byl & Marko Grčević
2	Preface: Theology in the Public Sphere	13
	Johanna Gustafsson Lundberg
3	The Fraternity of the “Little Bishops” in the context of the reflections on a “Church of the Poor” at Vatican II	21
	Miriam Niekämper
4	Interreligious Dialogue Among Catholics and Muslims in Bosnia and Herzegovina	34
	A Historical and Theological Perspective Ivan Pleše
5	“Etiquette” in Ecumenism	47
	Ten Guiding Principles for Respectful and Enriching Interconfessional Encounter Marko Grčević
6	Theology in Spatial Design: The House of Prayer and Learning, House of One, as Placing Strategy, Declaration, and Locus for Interreligious Encounter and Theological Production in Super-Diverse Berlin	62
	Daniel Jara J.
7	The Christ-like ethos in the Church of Philippi.	75
	Martina Mraz
8	Interpretation of War in Orthodox Social Documents: The Moscow and Constantinople Perspectives	85
	Aleksandar Vasiljević; Filip Marinković
9	Religious Education in Post-Traditional Contexts	99
	Marius de Byl

10	Antinomy in the Classroom: Teaching Religious and Civic Education	111
	Stefan Cvetanovski
11	Vulnerability in the Corona Pandemic	120
	A Critical Testing Ground for Religious Education and Political Theology
	Bernhard Grümm
12	How can RE best be organized to address controversial issues? . . .	131
	The challenges and opportunities of a cooperative organization of RE by the state and religious communities using the German case as an example
	Jan-Hendrik Herbst & Henrike Herdrumm
13	Transcreation as a Translation Process in Religious Education . . .	147
	Christian Hild
14	Some Current Challenges of Practical Theology Regarding Christian Practice in Society	161
	Nikola Vranješ
15	List of authors	172