

Table of Contents

1. Introduction: Religious Minorities and Religious Education in a Plural Europe Anders Aschim, Jenny Berglund, Marta Bivand Erdal, Friedrich Schweitzer	9
--	---

I. Migration, Minorities, and Religion

2. Understanding the Interplay of Migration, Minorities, and Religion in European Societies Characterized by Migration-Driven Diversification Marta Bivand Erdal, Dominic Pasura	37
--	----

II. Education in Religious Communities

3. Exploring Muslim and Catholic Faith Education in Norway. Transnational Ties, Role Modeling, and Socialization Hildegunn Valen Kleive, Synnøve Markeng, Marianne Friisberg Larssen, Marta Bivand Erdal, Vebjørn L. Horsfjord	63
4. Spaces for Expression in Mosque-Based Education. The Perspective of Young Muslims Anne Grethe Kjelling	85
5. “This Is Where I Want to Be”. The Significance of Catechesis for Catholic Youths Ole Kolbjørn Kjørven, Marianne Friisberg Larssen	107
6. The Sound of Children Learning Torah. Education in the Jewish Community of Oslo Gunnar Haaland	123
7. Translanguaging Faith? Communication Strategies and Meaning-Making in Multilingual Faith Education Settings Nora S. Eggen, Anders Aschim	141

8. Volunteering, Faith, and Social Identity.
Religious Trajectories of Young Adult Muslim and Catholic Faith Educators
Lars Julius Halvorsen, Anders Aschim 165

III. Schools and Religious Diversity

9. Experiences of Religious Diversity in Norwegian Public Schools.
Insights from School Leaders, RE Teachers, and Students
Ole Kolbjørn Kjørven, Marianne Hustvedt, Thor-André Skrefsrud . . 187
10. Learning Islam Within the Formal School System.
Experiences from Poland and Sweden
Jenny Berglund, Konrad Pędziwiatr 203
11. Catholic Education in Scotland.
Thriving or Struggling in a Secular Landscape?
Roisín Coll 227
12. Teaching Controversial Issues While Creating Community
Cohesion?
Lene Kühle 247

IV. Looking Across

13. Compulsory Religious Education in Norwegian Public Schools.
Religious Minority Experiences
Ole Kolbjørn Kjørven 273
14. Catholic Teenagers' Encounters with the Norwegian RE School
Subject
Marianne Friisberg Larssen, Anders Aschim 293
15. Learning to be Catholic.
Church Strategies in the Face of Secularization and Migration-
Driven Diversification in Europe
Anders Aschim, Marta Bivand Erdal 309
16. Resource-oriented Pedagogy.
Exploring Dilemmas, Challenges, and Pedagogical Considerations
Thor-André Skrefsrud 337

Conclusions and Perspectives

17. Minorities, Migration, Religion, and Religious Education.

Conclusions and Perspectives for Future Research

Friedrich Schweitzer 357

Authors 381